This could result in a sudden boil over of the hot liquid. To prevent this possibility the following steps should be taken x x x x x Avoid using straight sided containers with narrow necks. Do not overheat. Stir the liquid before placing the container in the oven and again halfway through the heating time. After heating, allow to stand in the oven for a short time, stir or shake them again carefully and check the temperature of them before consumption to avoid burns especially, contents of feeding bottles and baby food jars. It is particularly important that the door closes properly. The door should not be distorted, the hinges and latch should not be broken, bent or loose, and the seals must be in perfect condition. This microwave oven contains no user-serviceable components. Any adjustments or repairs must be performed by a qualified technician. Never use the oven with the door open. There is the risk of being exposed to dangerous microwave

Never manipulate or tamper with the safety locks and the hinges of the door. Keep the seals and seal surfaces clean and free of contamination like food remains and cleaner residue. The oven should not be adjusted or repaired by anyone except properly qualified service personnel. It is hazardous for anyone other than a trained person to carry out any service or repair operation which involves the removal of any cover which gives protection against exposure to microwave energy. Only allow children to use the oven without supervision when adequate instructions have been given so that the child is able to use the oven in a safe way and understands the hazards of improper use. Microwave heating of beverages can result in delayed eruptive boiling, therefore care has to be taken when handling the container. Use the microwave oven for cooking purposes only. Do not use it to dry animals, clothing, paper or other objects or for sterilisation or as a storage space for books, cooking utensils etc. Prior to use! The grill elements of your oven have been covered by a coating in order to protect during transporting and storage. To remove the coating heat the elements about 5 minutes. To remove bad odour place a bowl suitable for microwaves, not too small, filled with 0,2 l water or more into the oven chamber. This appliance is designed for standing only. The area immediately around the oven should be free to allow the circulation of fresh air for cooling. Do not place the microwave oven near a radio or television set etc. This might cause interference. Never place the oven where it is exposed to convection, steam or humidity. The minimum height of free space necessary above top surface of the oven is 150mm. KOC985TBEEnglish 99.11.24 447 PM Page 1 Things Before using the oven please read these instructions carefully, they contain safety notes and useful tips. If in doubt contact an electrician. Faulty connections can start fires and create other risks and prevent the oven from working correctly. <http://www.forumsa.cat/imagenes/camara-dxg-manual.xml>

DAEWOO is not liable for any damage due to faulty connection. They create heat by causing the molecules in water, fat and sugar to vibrate. They only penetrate a certain depth e.g. approx. 25 mm into meat and this heat is then conducted to the rest of the item being cooked. Tableware must be suitable for use in a microwave oven. For example, dishes made of temperature resistant glass, ceramics, porcelain and plastic in the case of combination cooking it should also be fireproof. Never place closed metal containers into your microwave oven the microwaves are reflected and the food will not get warm. In the case of TV dinners the food can be left in the aluminium tray with the top removed. Microwaves can damage any crockery with gold or silver decoration. Never place food in the oven in closed containers the container could explode. Food with a skin or peel can explode. Never place eggs in a microwave. When cooking items such as potatoes, chicken livers etc., puncture the skin using e.g. a fork to allow steam to escape. Never heat spirits alcoholic drinks to high temperatures; they may selfignite. Food which has been cooked with a microwave continues to cook after the oven is switched off. Help the heat to spread uniformly by stirring and turning, in particular after only short heating periods. Never turn the microwave oven on without food in the chamber it might overload and get damaged. Metal items, e.g. dishes, should not touch the walls of the oven, this can cause sparking and could cause a fire. If you think there is a fire in the oven smoke, leave the door closed, switch the unit off press STOP several times and disconnect from the mains electricity supply. 2 KOC985TBEEnglish 99.11.24 448 PM Page 3 M I C R O W A V E S a n d O V E N The microwave oven ENGLISH Safety door lock The oven will only operate with the door fully closed.
